

Inside Running Academy

TERMS & CONDITIONS

BACKGROUND

Inside Running Academy is a private international rugby academy based in Mt Maunganui, New Zealand.

Inside Running Academy provide holistic rugby player development services.

Inside Running Academy was established in 2010.

The Player wishes to engage Inside Running Academy to provide a rugby development camp experience.

The terms and conditions set out in this document form a contract between Inside Running Academy and the Player.

1. THE PLAYER'S OBLIGATIONS

The player agrees to undertake the following:

- a) Attend all training sessions as required by the Academy and participate to the best of his ability;
- b) To not take any illegal substance during the course of his stay at the Academy;
- c) To not drink alcohol if under the age of 18. To not drink alcohol at Inside Running Academy's accommodation locations;
- d) Join the club that the Academy assigns the Player to and undertake training and playing to the best of his ability;
- e) Arrive at the Academy with a current World Rugby clearance;
- f) Make payment to Inside Running Academy. 20% deposit is required to be paid to secure your academy booking. For camps less than 12 weeks in duration, the balance is required to be paid 20 days prior to arrival. For camps of 12 weeks or more, Inside Running Academy will provide an invoice with progress instalments. For all payments by credit card a 3% surcharge is applied. All academy payments must be made in advance, players are not permitted to pay in arrears; and
- g) Sign the Inside Running Academy code of conduct and Academy Accommodation Contract upon arrival at the Academy and adhere to the terms and conditions of such code.

2. INSIDE RUNNING ACADEMY'S OBLIGATIONS

The Academy will provide the following to the Player throughout the Term:

- a) Specialist coaching from Inside Running Academy coaches and Strength and Conditioning coaches;
- b) Specialist Strength and Conditioning programme and gym membership at THE ATHLETE FACTORY;
- c) Free accommodation provided for the Player for the Term including breakfast and lunch meals on a self-catered basis;
- d) Insurance for all rugby related injuries. This will include any physiotherapy, x-rays or scans, specialist appointments and surgery. This insurance only extends to the cost of treatment, and only applies to any treatment that is undertaken in New Zealand. Pre-existing injuries
- e) Sports Supplements as prescribed by the Head Strength & Conditioning Coach;
- f) Free physiotherapy treatment provided by Foundation Sports and Rehabilitation Clinic, Tauranga;
- g) Seminars relating to specialist rugby topics; and
- h) Samurai apparel pack including shorts, training shirt and singlet.

3. TERMINATION

- a) The Academy may terminate this agreement effective immediately in the event of:
 - i. The Player being found guilty by a New Zealand court of law of any criminal offence punishable by imprisonment;
 - ii. The Player being found guilty of any breach of anti-doping regulations;
 - iii. The Player not paying Academy fees in accordance with payment terms (academy fees must be kept up to date and be paid in advance); and
 - iv. The Player being suspended from the Academy due to continual breaches of the Academy code of conduct.
- b) In the event of termination under clause 3 a) of these terms any course fees paid would not be refundable and the Player would be liable for the course fee in relation to the Term as agreed.

c) The Player may terminate his/her academy stay providing 10 days written notice in the event of:

- i. The Player having to return home due to a serious illness or death of a close family member. In this instance any prepaid course fees paid beyond the date of the Players departure would be refunded to the Player; or
- ii. The Player being of the view that the Academy is in material breach of this agreement and its obligations. In which instance the Player must provide the Academy with the opportunity to rectify any issues. In this instance any prepaid course fees paid beyond the date of the Players departure would be refundable to the Player; or
- iii. The Player sustaining a long-term injury or illness that means that the Player cannot participate in the Academy programme. Long-term is defined as any injury or illness that results in a 4 week lay off from the Academy programme.